Bechyňská Tower used to be a part of the fortification system; it is now a part of the Bechyňský Museum. The top of Kotnov Tower offers a breathtaking view of the surrounding area.

The picture by Jan Willenberk (drawn about the year 1660) gives an impression of the town as it used to be.

The Lower Raritan River flows eastward from the confluence of the Raritan's North and South Branches at Branchburg to the Raritan Bay. The 30-mile river corridor features over a dozen public parks, miles of bike/pedestrian trails, boat and kayak/canoe launch sites, fishing areas, playgrounds and picnic groves, natural areas, and many historic sites.

Get to know the Raritan and all it has to offer!
